

JULY INFORMATION SHEET

Presented by the Rosamond Community Services District for their valued customers. If you would like more information, or have suggestions for future information sheets, please let us know by calling 661-256-3411.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR OUR CUSTOMERS

Water reduction update

The drought continues to be a hot topic in our state. Each month the state issues a report on our per capita water usage and how much our community usage has been reduced when compared to usage in 2013. In May, our community used an average of 105.3 gallons of water per person per day, an 8% reduction from 2013 usage. This is a fair start, but we need to do more to comply with state regulations.

Do you need help finding ways to cut water use? Give us a call, or check out the conservation information on our website (more info on that is on the back of this infosheet).

A few reminders

There has been a lot going on in our community and at RCSD lately. Here are a few helpful reminders about changes recently made at RCSD:

- The RCSD office hours have changed. The office is open Monday through Friday each week, from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
- Sewer fees will now be collected on your monthly water bill instead of on your biannual tax bill.

Infosheets now on website

Community service is at the heart of everything we do at RCSD. We recently had a request from members of our community to make our monthly infosheets (like this one) easier to access, especially for community members who rent homes and may not receive the water bills for the property they live on.

For your convenience and information, all of our infosheets are now available on our website, RosamondCSD.com, under the 'Customer' tab.

As always, you can also pick up our current infosheet at our office and at regular board meetings.

If you have any comments on our infosheets, or have other ideas of how we can better serve you, please let us know.

Grand Jury report

The Kern County Grand Jury recently issued a report on RCSD, outlining a few ways we could improve our service.

There is a copy of the report on display in our office and online, if you are interested in reading the report yourself. To find the report online, go to RosamondCSD.com and click 'News' under the 'Customers' tab.

As always, please join us at a regular board meeting if you have any comments or questions you would like to share. Meeting and contact information can be found at the bottom of this, and every, infosheet.

Online water conservation resources

Did you know that RCSD has curated free information and resources on water conservation on our website?

To take advantage of this resource, visit RosamondCSD.com and click on the 'Water Conservation' button below the main picture.

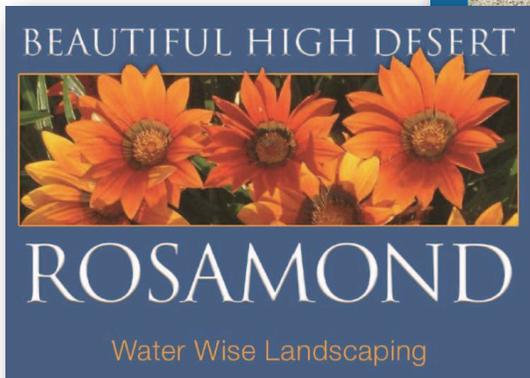

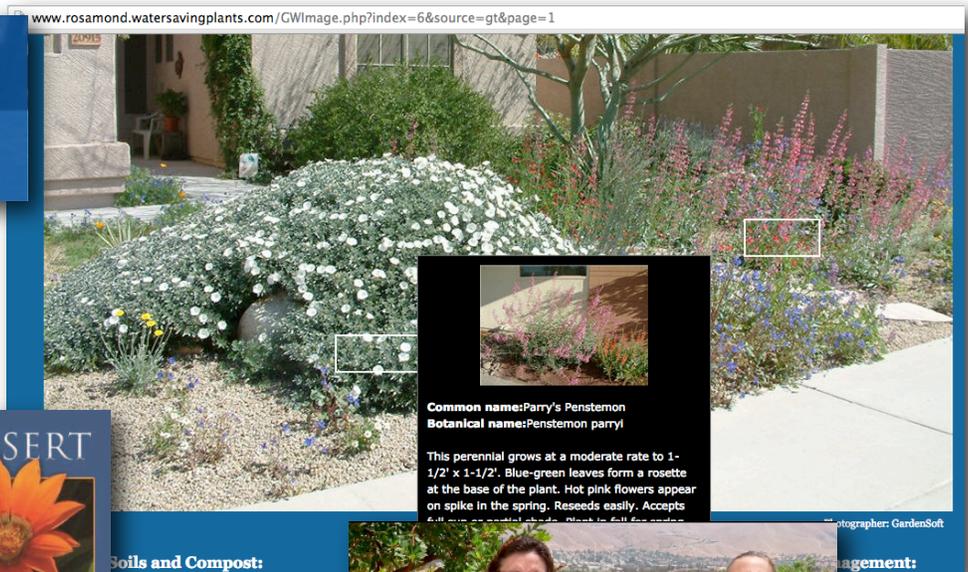

On the water conservation page you will find links to other websites dedicated to water conservation, including state and federal resources. There is also a selection of videos that you may find useful.

One particularly interesting and informative resource is Beautiful High Desert Rosamond Water Wise Landscaping site. It features real-world examples of water conserving landscaping, including lists of plants used.

Do you have additional water conservation resources that you've found useful? Let us know, as we are always looking for ways to help our community work together to make it through this historic drought.
